

The Travis Law Firm

The Travis Law Firm, PLC, was founded in 2008 by Chandler and Jessica Travis as a full service legal firm dedicated to the representation of homeowner and condominium associations throughout Arizona.

CHANDLER W. TRAVIS, Founding Attorney

As the founding attorney of The Travis Law Firm, Chandler Travis represents community associations throughout Arizona. He provides general counsel, litigation, collection and covenant enforcement services to community associations.

Chandler has litigated and defended numerous issues for associations, including claims against directors and officers for breach of Declaration and fiduciary duty. He has also litigated collection of delinquent assessments, lien foreclosure, covenant enforcement, and defamation cases for associations.

Chandler is an affiliate member of the Arizona Association of Community Managers and a member of the Community Association Institute-Central Arizona Chapter. He has taught continuing legal education classes to attorneys, community managers, board members and developers on all aspects of association law. Chandler has also written numerous association articles relating to community associations and Arizona legislative updates.

He received his Bachelor of Arts in 1993 from the University of Michigan. Chandler obtained his Juris Doctorate degree from the University Of Cincinnati College Of Law in 1996, where he was a member of the University of Cincinnati Law Review. He was admitted to the State Bar of Arizona in 1996, and is licensed to practice law before all Arizona state courts, and the United States District Court of Arizona.

JESSICA A. TRAVIS, President of Business Operations

As President of Business Operations, Jessica Travis manages all aspects of the firm's business. Her experience originates from her work with the world's largest semiconductor company for nine years. She is passionate about using technology to create a cost effective, legal choice for community associations.

Based on client input and market projections, Jessica directs the strategic vision and growth strategy for The Travis Law Firm. She has developed an aggressive plan to position The Travis Law Firm as the go-to firm in Arizona for community associations.

Jessica received her Bachelor of Science in Engineering from the University of Michigan in 1995, and worked as an Industrial Engineer, Contract Manager and Sales Analyst within the semiconductor industry.

Chandler and Jessica have three children and two dogs. They enjoy hiking, mountain biking, family time, and the beautiful Arizona weather.

Utilizing Chandler's expertise in community association law and Jessica's business insight, The Travis Law Firm is committed to provide associations with excellent and timely legal services at reasonable rates.
